TEAL – Teacher of the Year Graduate Student Award
Nominations Due November 1st

This award is given each year to recognize and emphasize excellence in teaching by a graduate student. Other scholarly activity such as research and publication records may be considered in the selection process, but the main emphasis will be on teaching excellence.

Criteria

- Excellence in teaching as supported by standard USU course evaluations and letters of nomination.
- Other scholarly activity such as research and publication records may be considered in the selection process, but the main emphasis will be on teaching excellence.

Submission Materials

- Curriculum vitae in standard format
- One letter of support from mentor or department head addressing specific examples of teaching work and effectiveness.
- A summary of evaluation scores and enrollments for courses taught at USU.

Process

- A committee appointed by the TEAL department head will review nominees and recommend an individual for the Teacher of the Year Graduate Student Award.
- The student selected as the TEAL Teacher of the Year Graduate Student will have his/her materials (with additional evidence) forwarded to the CEHS Dean’s office selection committee for consideration for the College Graduate Student of the Year Award. These materials are due at the CEHS Dean’s Office on January 15th.

Recognition

- Recipient will be recognized at the TEAL Awards Ceremony.

Email nomination materials to TEAL Department Head by November 1st