

Teaching Composites (Comprehensive – No Minor Required)
Remember that composite teaching majors do not require a minor, although you may choose additional minors for licensure.
Agricultural Education	Mathematics and Statistics Education
Art Education	Music Education
Biological Sciences	Physical Science
Business Education	Social Studies (Advised through Secondary Education Department)
Earth Sciences	Technology and Engineering Education
Family and Consumer Sciences Education

Remember that single subject teaching majors also require a teaching minor for licensure.

Subject Areas With Both A Single-Subject Teaching Major or Minor Available
Chemistry	Modern Languages (French/German/Spanish)
English	Physics
History	Special Education (Double Major Option)
Human Movement (PE)	Theater Arts
Mathematics

Approved Teaching Minor Subject Areas
ASL (American Sign Language)	Political Science
Chinese	Psychology
Geography	School Library Media (Permission of ITE Department Required)
Latin	Sociology
Physical Education/Coaching	Speech