USU professor wins literacy grant for Vernal elementary

09/23/2019

Dr. Marla Robertson

Congratulations to Dr. Marla Robertson on being awarded a 2019 Literacy Grant from the Honor Society of Phi Kappa Phi to help local students in Vernal, UT improve reading and writing.

"I plan to facilitate ongoing professional development at the school to assist teachers in grades K-5 in how to use these engaging informational texts in the classroom to get kids excited about reading, writing, and learning with informational texts," Dr. Robertson said.

For full article: